Aqua Cooler's R & D Branch Out
with a New Drinks Cabinet

Aqua Cooler is quickly emerging as a company with growth and development as its main focus. Their dynamic R & D team have recently been working on the development of a new Drinks Cabinet, designed for POU drink sales in locations such as service stations and convenience stores.

The cabinet has a high efficiency design and is available in most corporate colours, showing limitless potential for a vast array of other applications.

Over the years, Aqua Cooler has experienced tremendous success with its drinking fountains, water coolers and industrial chillers, and this new innovation further demonstrates Aqua Cooler's consistent dominance within the refrigeration industry across numerous product categories.
